

CURRICULUM VITAE

Thomas M. Butynski

Personal

Date of birth: 26 March 1948

Citizenship: United States of America

Address: Eastern Africa Primate Diversity and Conservation Program
P. O. Box 149
10400 Nanyuki, Kenya
E-mail: tbutynski@aol.com
Telephones in Kenya: +254-20-356-1665 & +254-20-237-5287
Telephones in USA: 1-973-267-1710 & 1-973-377-2426

Profession: Wildlife Ecologist / Conservation Biologist / Primatologist

Education

Ph.D. 1978 Wildlife Ecology, Michigan State University
M.Sc. 1975 Wildlife Ecology, Michigan State University
B.Sc. 1970 Wildlife Biology, University of Massachusetts

Primary Professional Interests

Field studies on mammalian and avian ecology, behavior, taxonomy, distribution, abundance and conservation status, especially primates, antelopes, suides, rodents and birds. Conservation and ecology of tropical forests and threatened species, particularly on islands. Biodiversity surveys, evaluation, monitoring, and conservation. Protected area identification, development, and management. Biodiversity and protected areas database establishment and maintenance. Island biogeography. Providing training, assistance, and opportunities to developing country biologists and conservationists.

Current and Recent Professional Experience

2006-present Senior Conservation Biologist - Drexel University's Bioko Biodiversity Protection Program

2004-present Co-director – Eastern Africa Primate Diversity and Conservation Program

2005-2006 Technical Advisor (Corridors) – CEPF Eastern Arc Mountains and Coastal Forests of Tanzania and Kenya Biodiversity Hotspot Project

2004-2005 Scientific Advisor – CEPF Eastern Arc Mountains and Coastal Forests of Tanzania and Kenya Biodiversity Hotspot Project.

2001-2006 Director – Conservation International's Eastern Africa Biodiversity Hotspots Program

1998-present	Co-Editor – The Mammals of Africa , a series of six volumes (due for publication in 2009)
1998-2000	Project Leader – Evaluation of the Conservation Status and Translocation of the Hirola (Hunter's) Antelope (Kenya)
1997-2002	Co-Project Leader – Conservation and Monitoring of the Endangered Endemic Primates of the Udzungwa Mountains (Tanzania)
1997-1999	Project Leader – Recommendations on the Location of a Fence around the Aberdares Mountains (Kenya)
1995-2006	Senior Editor - African Primates – The Journal of the Africa Section of the IUCN/SSC Primate Specialist Group
1995-1997	Co-Project Leader – Ecological Surveys of Mt. Tshiaberimu (Congo)
1994-2001	Project Leader – Tana River Primate Monitoring Project (Kenya)
1993-2006	Vice-Chair for Africa – IUCN/SSC Primate Specialist Group, Africa Section
1993-2001	Senior Conservation Biologist – Zoo Atlanta's Africa Biodiversity Conservation Program (Kenya)
1991-1993	Director – Institute of Tropical Forest Conservation (Uganda)
1986-1993	Director – Impenetrable Forest Conservation Project (Uganda)
1978-1984	Post-doctoral Researcher – Primate Ecology, Kibale Forest (Uganda) and Rockefeller University (New York)
1970-1974	Wildlife Biologist – Botswana Department of Tourism, Wildlife & National Parks

Professional Societies, Associations, and Institutions

American Society of Mammalogists (Life Member)
 American Society of Primatologists (Member)
 American Zoo and Aquarium Association (Professional Fellow)
 International Primatological Society (Member)
 The Wildlife Society (Member & 'Certified Wildlife Biologist')
 The Chicago Field Museum of Natural History (Associate in Zoology, Division of Mammals)

Some Current Professional Activities

IUCN/SSC Antelope Specialist Group (Member)
 IUCN/SSC Primate Specialist Group (Member)
 IUCN/SSC Afrotheria Specialist Group (Member)
 IUCN/SSC Primate Specialist Group's Section on Great Apes (Member, Executive Committee)
 IUCN/SSC Pigs, Peccaries & Hippo Specialist Group (Member).
 East Africa Wild Life Society (Member, Conservation Committee)
 East Africa Natural History Society (Member, Bird Sub-Committee, and Library Sub-Committee)
Journal of East African Natural History (Editorial Committee)
Oryx – The International Journal of Conservation (International Board of Editors)

Selected Consultancies (There are available as pdf)

- Butynski, T.M. & Mwangi, G. 1994. Conservation status and distribution of the Tana River red colobus and crested mangabey. Unpublished report for the Kenya Wildlife Service, National Museums of Kenya, Kenya Institute of Primate Research, and East African Wildlife Society, Nairobi. 68 pp. Consultancy funded by The World Bank Global Environment Facility through the Kenya Wildlife Service.
- Butynski, T.M. 1999. Aberdares National Park and Aberdares Forest Reserves wildlife fence placement study and recommendations. Unpublished report for the Kenya Wildlife Service and Kenya Forest Department, Nairobi. 453 pp. Consultancy funded by The World Bank through the Kenya Wildlife Service’s “PAWS Project”.

Butynski, T.M. 2000. Independent evaluation of hirola antelope Beatragus hunteri conservation status and conservation action in Kenya. Unpublished report for the Kenya Wildlife Service and Hirola Antelope Management Committee, Nairobi. 192 pp. Consultancy funded by the Kenya Wildlife Service.

Butynski, T.M. & McCullough (eds.). 2007. A rapid biological assessment of Lokutu, Democratic Republic of Congo. RAP Bulletin of Biological Assessment No. 46. Center for Applied Biodiversity Science, Conservation International. 81 pp. Project Leader was T.M. Butynski. Consultancy funded by Conservation International.

Grants Received

Obtained in excess of U.S. Dollars 6 million from 1986 through 2008 on more than 60 grants. All funds for biodiversity conservation related work (primarily on natural forests, primates, birds, antelopes, and biodiversity) in Uganda, Equatorial Guinea, Kenya, Eritrea, Tanzania, Ethiopia, Gabon, and Democratic Republic of Congo.

CV up-dated: August 2008
